

Given the limited capabilities of private aircraft to be used as a terrorist weapon I believe that private pilots following specific procedures should be able to use the now closed airports around Washington DC. I would like to visit my son at the University of Maryland.